Xi'an

- Terra-Cotta Warriors - Collection of terracotta sculptures depicting the armies of Qin Shi Huang, the first Emperor of China. It is a form of funerary art buried with the emperor in 210-209 BC and whose purpose was to protect the emperor in his afterlife.
- HuaQing Pool - It was built in 723 by Emperor Xuanzong of the Tang Dynasty as part of the Huaqing Palace, using the locally-occurring geothermal heating, and is famous as the supposed scene of Xuanzong's romance with his consort Yang Guifei.
- Muslim Street - Is lined with various restaurants and stalls, some of which specialize in selling cakes, some in dried fruit and some in snacks. Most famous dishes of Xi'an are available on Muslim Street, including Marinated Meat in a Baked Bun, Pita Bread Soaked in Lamb Soup, Bean Threads in Shaanxi Flavoring and Xi'an Dumplings.
- Shanxi Museum - The museum houses over 370,000 items, including murals, paintings, pottery, coins, as well as bronze, gold, and silver objects. The modern museum was built between 1983 and 2001 and its appearance recalls the architectural style of the Tang Dynasty.

Zheng Zhou

- The Yellow River Scenic Area - The scenic area is surprisingly beautiful. As seen from a high point in this scenic area, the mighty Yellow River rushes by and demonstrates tremendous force with rolling and falling of the river's torrents.

Kai Feng

- Bao Gong Memorial Temple - to commemorate the famous ancient Chinese clean government, political reform and reconstruction of the home of Bao Zheng, which is located in Kaifeng City, Henan Province, Bao Lake Sipan, is one of the major attractions in the National Tourism Administration tourism development and construction of the Central Plains region.
- Millennium City Park - The built area consists of several architectural complexes which are re-creations based on the famous twelfth century painting by Zhang Zeduan of 'The Qingming Festival by the Riverside'.

Deng Feng

- Shaolin Temple - Is reputed to be 'the Number One Temple under Heaven'. Included on UNESCO's World Cultural & Natural Heritage List in 2010, it is the cradle of the Chinese Zen Buddhism and the Shaolin Martial Arts such as Shaolin Cudgel. - Forest of Pagodas - It is a concentration of tomb pagodas for eminent monks and abbots of the temple.
- Forest of Pagodas - It is a concentration of tomb pagodas for eminent monks and abbots of the temple.

Luo Yang

- Longmen Grottoes - Treasure house of ancient Buddhist cave art. The grottos were hewed and carved during the Northern Wei Dynasty (386-534), when the rulers relocated their capital at Luoyang near the end of the 5th century. At that time Buddhism was spreading east into China and was venerated by the imperial court.
- Guanlin Temple - The temple covers an area of 100 mu (about 16.5 acres). Inside the temple are halls, tablets, small stone lions and cypress. The layout of the temple highly embodies the traditional style of Chinese architecture.
